Rubrics

Levels of Performance

Four distinct levels of performance are used to describe the quality of teaching within West Virginia classrooms. Rubrics guide the determination of specific performance levels.

Distinguished	Accomplished	Emerging	Unsatisfactory
Distinguished performance describes professional teaching that engages students to be highly responsible for their own learning. Performing at this level involves contributing to the professional learning of others through teacher leadership.	Accomplished performance describes professional teaching that exhibits mastery of the work of teaching while improving practice and serving the professional community.	Emerging performance represents teaching that demonstrates knowledge and skills to implement essential elements albeit not always successfully at times.	Unsatisfactory performance describes teaching that does not convey sufficient understanding of concepts or the successful implementation of essential elements.

Performance-level ratings may fluctuate from year-to-year due to a variety of circumstances, such as changes in content or grade level. Evaluators select a performance level from the rubric that best describes current, actual educator practice—not a future expectation—for a particular element. Connecting the performance level to actual practice is especially important when choosing between two adjoining performance levels. For example, emerging performance is clearly different from unsatisfactory performance. Educators, likewise, select from the rubric a performance level that best describes current practice when completing the self-reflection. West Virginia Professional Teaching Standards may offer additional insight into selecting an appropriate performance level for self-reflection or evaluation.

Professional Teaching Standards

The five Professional Teaching Standards used in the evaluation system are derived from the West Virginia Professional Teaching Standards. The Professional Teaching Standards recognize performance at the Accomplished level to be meritorious as well as rigorous and of high quality. Accomplished performance is expected to be the most frequently recognized level of performance; performance at the Distinguished will likely occur on occasion. Preponderance of the evidence provides the basis for evaluators to determine performance-level ratings.

Student Learning

Student Learning is the single most important goal of education. Many things affect students' quality of life and readiness to learn. The quality of teaching, however, is the most important school-related factor with the potential to impact student learning. The work of the teacher constitutes multiple dimensions that contribute to student achievement. This performance standard requires educators to demonstrate their students' success through multiple measures. The educator evaluation recognizes the professional commitment and hard work necessary for West Virginia students to achieve at high levels. It recognizes student growth in a variety of classrooms across diverse social and academic contexts.

STANDARD 6: STUDENT LEARNING
Element 6.1: The work of the teacher results in measurable progress of student learning of state-approved curricula.
Distinguished	Accomplished	Emerging	Unsatisfactory

The teacher accomplishes a student-learning goal that involves collaborative efforts across classrooms. Evidence from multiple measures does not validate progress of student learning of appropriate state-approved curricula.

Professional Conduct

Professional Conduct reflects the understanding that teaching is both a demanding and rewarding profession that involves a serious commitment to the highest standards of public service. This performance standard sets clear criteria for those competencies and habits-of-mind without which professional teaching simply cannot occur. The Professional Conduct standard allows educators to address areas of concern without necessitating an improvement plan. The Professional Conduct performance standard does not, however, supplant code and policy to which educators remain fully accountable and is not determinative of whether behavior is correctable. Certain violations may be cured by implementation of an improvement plan; others will require immediate action.

STANDARD 7: PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT
Element 7.1: The teacher demonstrates professional conduct as defined in law, policy and procedure at the state, district and school level.
