Student Essay Instructions

2024 GHA Theme: “The World We Will Create”

During the 2024 West Virginia Honor’s Academy at Fairmont State University, students will participate in academic and extracurricular activities that explore the embedded theme: “The World We Will Create.” Through this theme, students will explore a wide range of contemporary issues with an eye to the future and the aspirations of their generation. Generation Z will assume the reigns of leadership in the wake of myriad upheavals related to unprecedented events like the recent COVID-19 pandemic as well as an on-going technology revolution, the potentially catastrophic impact of climate change, growing political strife, challenging socioeconomic uncertainties, and intensifying social justice movements. The 2023 GHA theme will enable students to better understand how we got to where we are so they may better contend with the world they will inherit as they create a new world of their own. Programming will enable students to explore critical historical and contemporary realities at the local, state, national, and global level so that they can best determine what aspects of our shared past that they wish to keep and revitalize in the future and which elements are best left behind.

Write a short essay (300-350 words) convincing the reader of the importance of being a responsible citizen in our world. You may include several examples of what you see as issues facing our domestic communities and our global society.

Your essay must be completely formatted in a Word document using 12 Times New Roman and double spaced.

The following rubric will be used to evaluate your writing:

Organization and content

- Strong topic sentence supports the thesis;
- points are well organized and well developed;
- includes sufficient details to defend positions;
- uses thoughtful vocabulary;
- uses a variety of sentence types;

Attach the completed essay to your application.
